Q.2) Read the following poem and write an appreciation of it with the help of the given Points in a paragraph format:

5

Ans.The poem 'where the mind is without fear' by Ravindranath Tagore, who was awarded The Noble Prize in literature. It is an extract from "Gitanjali". Tagore address God as 'My father' and ask him to be motivated and enlighten his countrymen with spirit of freedom, nationalism and unity for the country. The description of an ideal and free nation in the form of a prayer to the almighty forms the central ideal of the poem.

The poem is written in free-verse without any rhyme scheme followed throughout the poem. There are many figure of speech. The poem being highly imagistic and deeply motivating. The poet is successful in maintaining a universal tone. The poem defines freedom as not merely a political ideology but as an intellectual and social awakening of god. All these factors contribute to my liking towards the poem.
